

PROFILE

An ambitious and hardworking graduate with a strong academic and internship background in financial services. Successfully supported a wide range of accounting, trading and financial analysis/planning operations for a wide range of organizations. Strengthened communication, team building and adaptability skills. Experience in developing tools using Access, VBA, and Excel. Certified in Bloomberg Essentials and Market Concepts. Fluent in Turkish, conversant in Spanish.

Technical Skills: Morningstar, Bloomberg and Envestnet. Data Analytics: Stata

EDUCATION

Pace University, New York, NY

Expected 12/2015

Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance with minor in Accounting and Economics, GPA: 3.25

EXPERIENCE

Tripoint Global Equities, LLC

New York, NY

Investment Banking Analyst Intern

10/2015-Present

- Perform financial and operational due diligence on biotech and technology companies by analyzing performance metrics, market trends, competition, and company management.
- Attend quarterly earnings conference calls and wrote reports on companies' financial performance for the management.
- Designed all company marketing materials including PowerPoint presentations, transaction summaries, new deal snapshots, and website materials.

Auerbach Grayson & Co. Inc.

New York, NY

Equity Research Intern

10/2014-06/2015

- Analyzed third party industry and company reports and created multi source summary reports which were distributed to AGCO, its worldwide partner network, and its emerging market institutional client-base.
- Improved the company wide research process by creating a firm standard format for research reports. This standard was adopted for uses in 128 markets across the world resulting in a simplified search for key financial data from various platforms; such as Bloomberg, Capital IQ, and Reuters.
- Assembled, collected, and analyzed, financial data and valuation metrics via Bloomberg for the production of company equity research reports.
- Analyzed client profiles using Ipreo a customer relationship management platform, to identify AGCO's clients' previous holdings and expected sales pressure points.

Northwestern Mutual Financial Network—ss Cannataro Park Avenue Financial

New York, NY

Wealth Management Intern

03/2014 – 06/2014

- Generated over $100k in revenue by troubleshooting unlinked client accounts.
- Performed asset allocation based on established client risk tolerance and cash requirements, and determined whether changes in strategy would be appropriate
- Created portfolio summary reports for high net worth clients and presented findings to investment advisors.

Madre – International Women's Human Rights Organization

New York, NY

Accounting Intern

10/2013 – 03/2014

- Recorded and paid invoices via Fund EZ non-profit accounting software and created P&L reports.
- Provided reliable and timely project by project expense, capitalization and spend data for all departments.
- Saved costs by pro-actively searching for and purchasing new office equipment and re-negotiating lease contracts.
- Reconciled bank and investment accounts and entered related journal entries in Fund EZ.

ACTIVITIES

Peer advisor for International Students

Summer 2012-2013

- Assisted with advisement of new freshmen during the registration process.
- Facilitated campus tours for new freshmen and their families.

Ernst & Young Forensic Accounting Case Competition

- Worked as part of four person team to analyze and detect fraud in financial statements.

- Developed evidence to support a fraud case and presented analysis to upper management at E&Y.