

Christopher Casamassima

166 Madison Street, Franklin Square, NY, 11010 | 516-233-9958 | cc2831a@student.american.edu

EDUCATION

American University, Kogod School of Business, Washington, DC

September 2014-May 2016

Bachelor of Science: Finance

Relevant Courses: Financial Modeling, Student Managed Investment Fund, Real Estate Financial Modeling, Corporate Valuations, Investment Analysis, Fixed Income Analysis, Intermediate Corporate Finance, International Finance, Financial Institutions
Bloomberg Certified-Fixed Income

WORK EXPERIENCE

The Bank of New York Mellon, New York, NY

May-August 2015

Summer Analyst

- Underwriting & Trade Finance Portfolio Management - Treasury Services
- Worked under Managing Director and Director in highly competitive, structured Global Internship Program
- Converted the Trade Finance transaction sale process on Excel and Word from manual to automated
- Executed the process of buying, selling and administering Letters of Credit
- Created the mid-year presentation, which entailed computing and summarizing data, analyzing trends, and presenting visuals of results to Executive Board
- Researched and successfully pitched new business process management software (PEGA) to senior management and started the related implementation
- Participated in "Stop Hunger Now," a corporate event to help make meals for countries in need

Complex Media, New York, NY

July-August 2014

Financial Analyst Intern

- Reported to COO and Director of Human Resources
- Gathered and analyzed impressions data that was used in business meetings and, subsequently, decisions to allocate advertisement money
- Participated in budget meetings, updated accounts receivable, inputted expense reports, and researched a company-wide corporate event

Supreme Court of the State of New York, Nassau County, NY

May-July 2014

Legal Intern

- Honorable Colin O'Donnell- Supreme Court Internship Program
- Observed courtroom proceedings, pretrial conferences, and arraignments
- Summarized and briefed judge on extensive reading material for Legal Meetings
- Attended weekly lectures about different fields of law given by judges and lawyers
- Visited the Nassau County Jail, Police Headquarters, Juvenile Delinquent Center, Medical Examiners Center

USTA National Tennis Center, Flushing Meadows, NY

Summers 2010, 2012

Tennis Coach

- Responsible for a group of twenty children ages 4-16. Developed leadership skills through teaching tennis fundamentals and implementing structured lessons
-

ACTIVITIES AND MEMBERSHIPS

Kogod Student Managed Investment Fund

- Analyst on Asset Management Team who oversee over $500,000
- Make investment pitches, and sit as an advisor

National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA)

Scholarship Tennis Player

September 2012-May 2014

- Played 2nd Singles, and 1st Doubles For Philadelphia University's Division II Tennis Team
- Most wins on team during two-year tenor
- 2013 Conference Rookie Award

The Sigma Chi Fraternity, American University

- Raised $23,500 for the Huntsman Cancer Foundation

Other American University Involvement: -Financial Management Association, Judicial Board Member for Inter-Fraternity Council

Other Philadelphia University Involvement: Accounting Society, Political Podcast Club

PREVIOUS EDUCATION

Philadelphia University, Philadelphia, PA

September 2012-May 2014

Specialization in Finance. Studied Freshman & Sophomore year.

Presidential and Athletic Scholarship recipient. Student Athlete Honor Roll (3.5+ GPA requirement)