

Mark Palladino

312 Bryant Ave. Oaklyn, NJ 08107

Email: M.palladino5@gmail.com

Cell: (609)247-6780

Objective: To continue to build on the skills I have gained throughout my educational and internship experiences

Employment History:

8/2014-

12/2014

Comcast SportsNet, Philadelphia, PA
News & Production Intern

- Experienced and learned production and operations from reporters, anchors and the production team by assisting the team in day to day tasks
- Used research, creativity and archive footage to assist with sports programming
- Exposure to field work including interviewing skills, lighting and operations
- Gained understanding of operating the teleprompter as well as other areas of the control room, production and director operations
- Participated and assisted with stage managing including mic'ing and camera operations
- Provided support for guest relations
- Logged games and instructed on highlight and sound bite identification
- Only 4 interns were chosen for this program and were chosen based on skills and university GPA after thorough interview process

6/2012-

Present

Philly's Phatties Pizza Shop, Oaklyn, NJ
Delivery Driver

- Deal with customers on a daily basis
- Customer service in the shop and also on routes
- Represent the company, therefore a positive attitude is required

Education:

West Chester University of Pennsylvania, West Chester, PA

Major: Liberal Arts

Cumulative GPA: 3.0/4.0

Dual Minors: Communications, Coaching

Graduated: December 2014

Applicable University Courses: Communication Research, Communication Theory, Public Speaking, Sport Culture & Society, Principles of Coaching

Extracurricular Activities:

- Video Coordinator for West Chester University Women's Basketball (2011-2013)
- Filmed games
- Assisted in editing films

Production Staff for Closed Circuit High School TV Station (2008-2010)

- Filmed morning broadcast

- Production was broadcasted to 1000 students on a daily basis
- Position only offered to members of the schools audio visual club

Participated in intramural basketball at WCU (2010-2014)