

Marc A. Ferrara
781-854-2737 * Ferraram@emmanuel.edu

Education:

Emmanuel College, Boston, MA

Completing Course work towards a Bachelors Degree in psychology with a concentration in Health and Counseling.

Expected May 2015

Career Objective:

Seeking a career in the Healthcare field working closely with children, aiming to develop skills in the field and potentially make a promising career in the field.

Work Experience:

Thom Metro Boston Early Intervention Center: 555 Armory Street, Jamaica Plain, MA 02130

September 2014-Present

- Intern/ Teaching Assistant
- Serve as one of the primary adults aiding in Child development.
- Work with children between 18 months to 3 years of age on their executive functioning
- Attention to detail
- Insure child is learning in a safe environment

Banana Republic: 28 Newbury Street, Boston, MA 02116

November 2013-Present

- Sales Representative
- Provide exceptional customer service
- Attentive to customers needs and concerns
- Diligently manage my own floor accommodating to customers needs

North Suffolk Mental Health Association: 301 Broadway Chelsea, MA

May 2014- August 2014

- Relief Staff
- Worked closely with adults with mental disability's
- Observed and counseled the Persons served assuring they were not a harm to themselves or others.
- Assisted with daily activates such as eating, attending doctors appointments, as well as making sure they took their medication as scheduled.

Saugus YMCA: 298 Main St Saugus, MA (781) 233-9622

June 2012- August 2012

- Camp Counselor
- Served as the primary adult responsible for youth ages 5-17
- Role model for campers
- Expand their knowledge, develop leadership skills
- Increase enthusiasm and possibilities for their future in society.

Achievements

- Head Peer Mediator for troubled youth
- Drafted a Green Guide for Regis College

Skills

- Computer skills include Microsoft Word, Power Point, Excel, SPSS
- CPR Certified
- MAP Certified

