

---

STEPHANIE MOORE

---

4698 Wilde Street, Philadelphia, PA 19127 | | C: 856-873-2949 | steph.moore15@yahoo.com

---

Professional Summary

---

Mental health professional driven to help others overcome personal obstacles. Able to work flexible hours, including day, evenings, and weekends as necessary. Capable of providing own transportation with valid driver's license. Comfortable working with all populations.

---

Skill Highlights

---

- Case planning
  - DSM-IV knowledge
  - Child abuse prevention
  - MS Office Suite expert
  - Experience working with disabled persons
  - Skilled mediator
  - Compassionate
  - Charismatic public speaker
  - 12 Steps programs
  - Parenting skills educator
-

Accomplishments

---

- Lions Club member. Demonstrated strong oral and written communication skills through leadership program.
  - Psi Chi National Honor Society member
-

Professional Experience

---

Research in Spatial Cognition Group (Summer Intern)

05/2012 to 08/2013

Spatial Intelligence and Learning Center

Temple University, Philadelphia, PA

Performed various administrative duties, including data entry and document preparation. Verified that information in the computer system was up-to-date and accurate.

Gained experienced with infants and young children.

---

Education and Training

---

BA/MS in Counseling Psychology

2013

Chestnut Hill College

Philadelphia, PA, United States

- Concentration on promoting resiliency in At-Risk children
  - 3.2 GPA
  - Behavioral Therapy coursework
  - Cognitive Behavioral Therapy coursework
  - Quantitative methods coursework for the social sciences
  - Research methods coursework
  - Drugs and Behavior coursework
-

Bachelor of Science: Life Sciences

2010

Pennsylvania State University

University Park, PA, United States

- Minor in Psychology
- Coursework in child development/lifespan development
- Emphasis in Adolescent Development
- 400 Level coursework in Biopsychology

