

Chelsey R. Carter

carterchelsey@gmail.com ▪ (314) 479-7410

Permanent Address: 151 Moreland Avenue SE Atlanta, GA 30316

EDUCATION

EMORY UNIVERSITY

Atlanta, GA

Bachelors of Arts with High Honors in Anthropology, Spanish Minor, GPA: 3.6/4.0

May 2012

- Marjorie Shostak Award Recipient/Anthropology Student of the Year 2010/Lambda Alpha and Phi Sigma Iota, Academic Honor Societies

OXFORD COLLEGE OF EMORY UNIVERSITY

Oxford, GA

Associate of Arts Degree

August 2008-May 2010

- Outstanding Youth in Philanthropy, Regional/ Presidential Bronze Medalist for Community Service, National

EXPERIENCE

CDC: National Center for Environmental Health, Climate and Health Program, Intern, Atlanta, GA May 2012-Present

- Researching climate literacy strategies for public health professionals
- Designing booklet containing integral modules and components of climate literacy framework
- Assisting with logistics and planning for the 2nd Annual CDC Science Symposium on Climate and Health

ALS Association of Georgia, Patient Services Intern, Atlanta, GA

May 2011-May 2012

- Revived "Helping Hands Program" that supports ALS patients & families with ongoing non- medical assistance
- Organized and matched 10 volunteer pairs with 7 families throughout Georgia
- Executed and created 3-hour training and manual for volunteers
- Completed more than 500 hours of volunteer service

Emory University Residential Life, Resident Advisor, Atlanta, GA

August 2010- May 2012

- Fostered community by organizing and promoting hall, campus, or community events
- Counseled and advised residents with personal and academic concerns
- Performed administrative tasks including incident reports, room changes & inventories, opening/closing halls
- Completed more than 480 hours of training on counseling, crisis management, conflict mediation, interpersonal skills, marketing and communication

Global Youth Leadership Institute, Director for Middle School Institute, Mystic Seaport, CT February 2011-August 2011

- Developed week long curriculum on water sustainability, collaborative leadership and pluralism
- Coordinated and facilitated conversations around issues such as global pluralism, leadership, and religion

RESEARCH/ LEADERSHIP

Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship, Mellon Mays Fellow, Atlanta, GA

May 2010- May 2012

- Attended bimonthly workshops that fostered scholarly writing, preparation for graduate school and life in the professoriate
- Research project/Honors Thesis: "Gender Consciousness: How gender affects the illness experience and explanatory models among people with ALS in Atlanta, GA"

Oxford Research Symposium, Anthropology Research Assistant, Oxford, GA

June 2009-May 2010

- Researched "Transracial Adoption in the Age of Obama" with Prof. Singer in the Oxford Scholars Symposium

Oxford College of Emory University, Bonner Leader—GED/Literacy Tutor, Oxford, GA

August 2008-May 2010

- Tutored inmates at Newton County Jail for GED completion completing over 250 hours of service each academic year and 400 hours of service during the summer

SKILLS & INTERESTS

- Computer Skills: Microsoft Office: Word, PowerPoint, and Excel/Learnlink First Class/DonorPro/Convio
- Languages: Competency in conversational Spanish; studied language for 9 years
- Volunteering: Project Open Hands, ALS Association of Georgia
- Interests: Cycling, Bootcamp, Traveling and babysitting